THE LAST SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY TRANSFIGURATION

2nd March, 2025

First Reading

Exod. 34:29-35

A reading from the Book of Exodus

Moses came down from Mount Sinai. As he came down from the mountain with the two tablets of the covenant in his hand, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God. When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, the skin of his face was shining, and they were afraid to come near him. But Moses called to them; and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses spoke with them. Afterward all the Israelites came near, and he gave them in commandment all that the Lord had spoken with him on Mount Sinai. When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face; but whenever Moses went in before the Lord to speak with him, he would take the veil off, until he came out; and when he came out, and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, the Israelites would see the face of Moses, that the skin of his face was shining; and Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 99 — A.P.B.A. page 325

Second Reading

2 Cor. 3:12-4:2

A reading from the Second Letter to the Corinthians

Since, then, we have such a hope, we act with great boldness, not like Moses, who put a veil over his face to keep the people of Israel from gazing at the end of the glory that was being set aside. But their minds were hardened. Indeed, to this very day, when they hear the reading of the old covenant, that same veil is still there, since only in Christ is it set aside. Indeed, to this very day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their minds; but when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit.

Therefore, since it is by God's mercy that we are engaged in this ministry, we do not lose heart. We have renounced the shameful things that one hides; we refuse to practice cunning or to falsify God's word; but by the open statement of the truth we commend ourselves to the conscience of everyone in the sight of God.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

This is my Son, my Chosen;
listen to him!

Gospel

Lk. 9:28-36

✠ The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Now about eight days after these sayings Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah" — not knowing what he said. While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!" When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

PRAYER FOR PEACE in the HOLY LAND & NORTH SUDAN

O God of justice and peace.

We cry out to you in the midst of the pain and trauma of violence and fear which prevails in the Holy Land and North Sudan.

Be with those who need you in this time of suffering.

We pray for peoples of all faiths:

Jews, Muslims and Christians and all the people of the land.

We pray to you O Lord

for an end to the violence and the establishment of peace.

We also call for you to bring justice and equity to the peoples.

Guide us into your kingdom where all people are treated as your children.

For to all of us,

you are our heavenly Father.

In the name of Jesus, we pray. Amen.

Two opportunities for the Imposition of Ashes during the Eucharists at 9am and 6pm in the Chapel.

Lent – A time to reset our lives

Use this Lenten period (5 March to 13 April) as time to get closer to God in all that you do. Spend more time in prayer and reflection. Often we see this time of the year as the time to give something up. Maybe it is easier to take something on.

However you approach Lent make sure you allow God to work in you all the things he has in store.

Parish Council Meetings

will operate differently in 2025.
Every second month we will devote our time to LYCIG principles with the other months dealing with Governance matters. Meagan Street will be leading the Parish forward as we explore how best to see our Parish grow Spiritually, Missionally and Numerically.
